What is the New European Bauhaus?

The New European Bauhaus (NEB) is an environmental, economic, and cultural initiative launched by the European Commission in 2020 and co-created with stakeholders across sectors.

NEB promotes an integrated approach to the Green Transition of our economy and societies, building on:

3 Values

3 Working Principles

How do we deliver the NEB?

- By co-creating with an active NEB Community across Europe
- By supporting bottom-up initiatives and funding projects
- By integrating NEB objectives in EU programmes and policies, and within the European Commission
- By developing standards and guidelines to support NEB projects
- By increasing awareness and mobilisation

WHAT?

Self-organised, place-based group of NEB community members that contribute to the delivery of the New European Bauhaus initiative by putting its values and principles into practice in their locality.

NEB Local Chapters

In the context of the NEB initiative, a Local Chapter allows creating, decentralising, and delegating coordination roles in the community, as well as strengthening a multilevel approach.

Empowers communities on the ground

Strengthens collaboration between NEB community members in a territory

NEB Local Chapters

Represent grassroots units of the NEB movement that operate on regional, municipal, city or even neighbourhood level.

STRUCTURE

Only 1 chapter can exist in a specific territory, but more can co-exist on different levels, which include same territory

A minimum of 2 members of the NEB Community needed for a Local Chapter

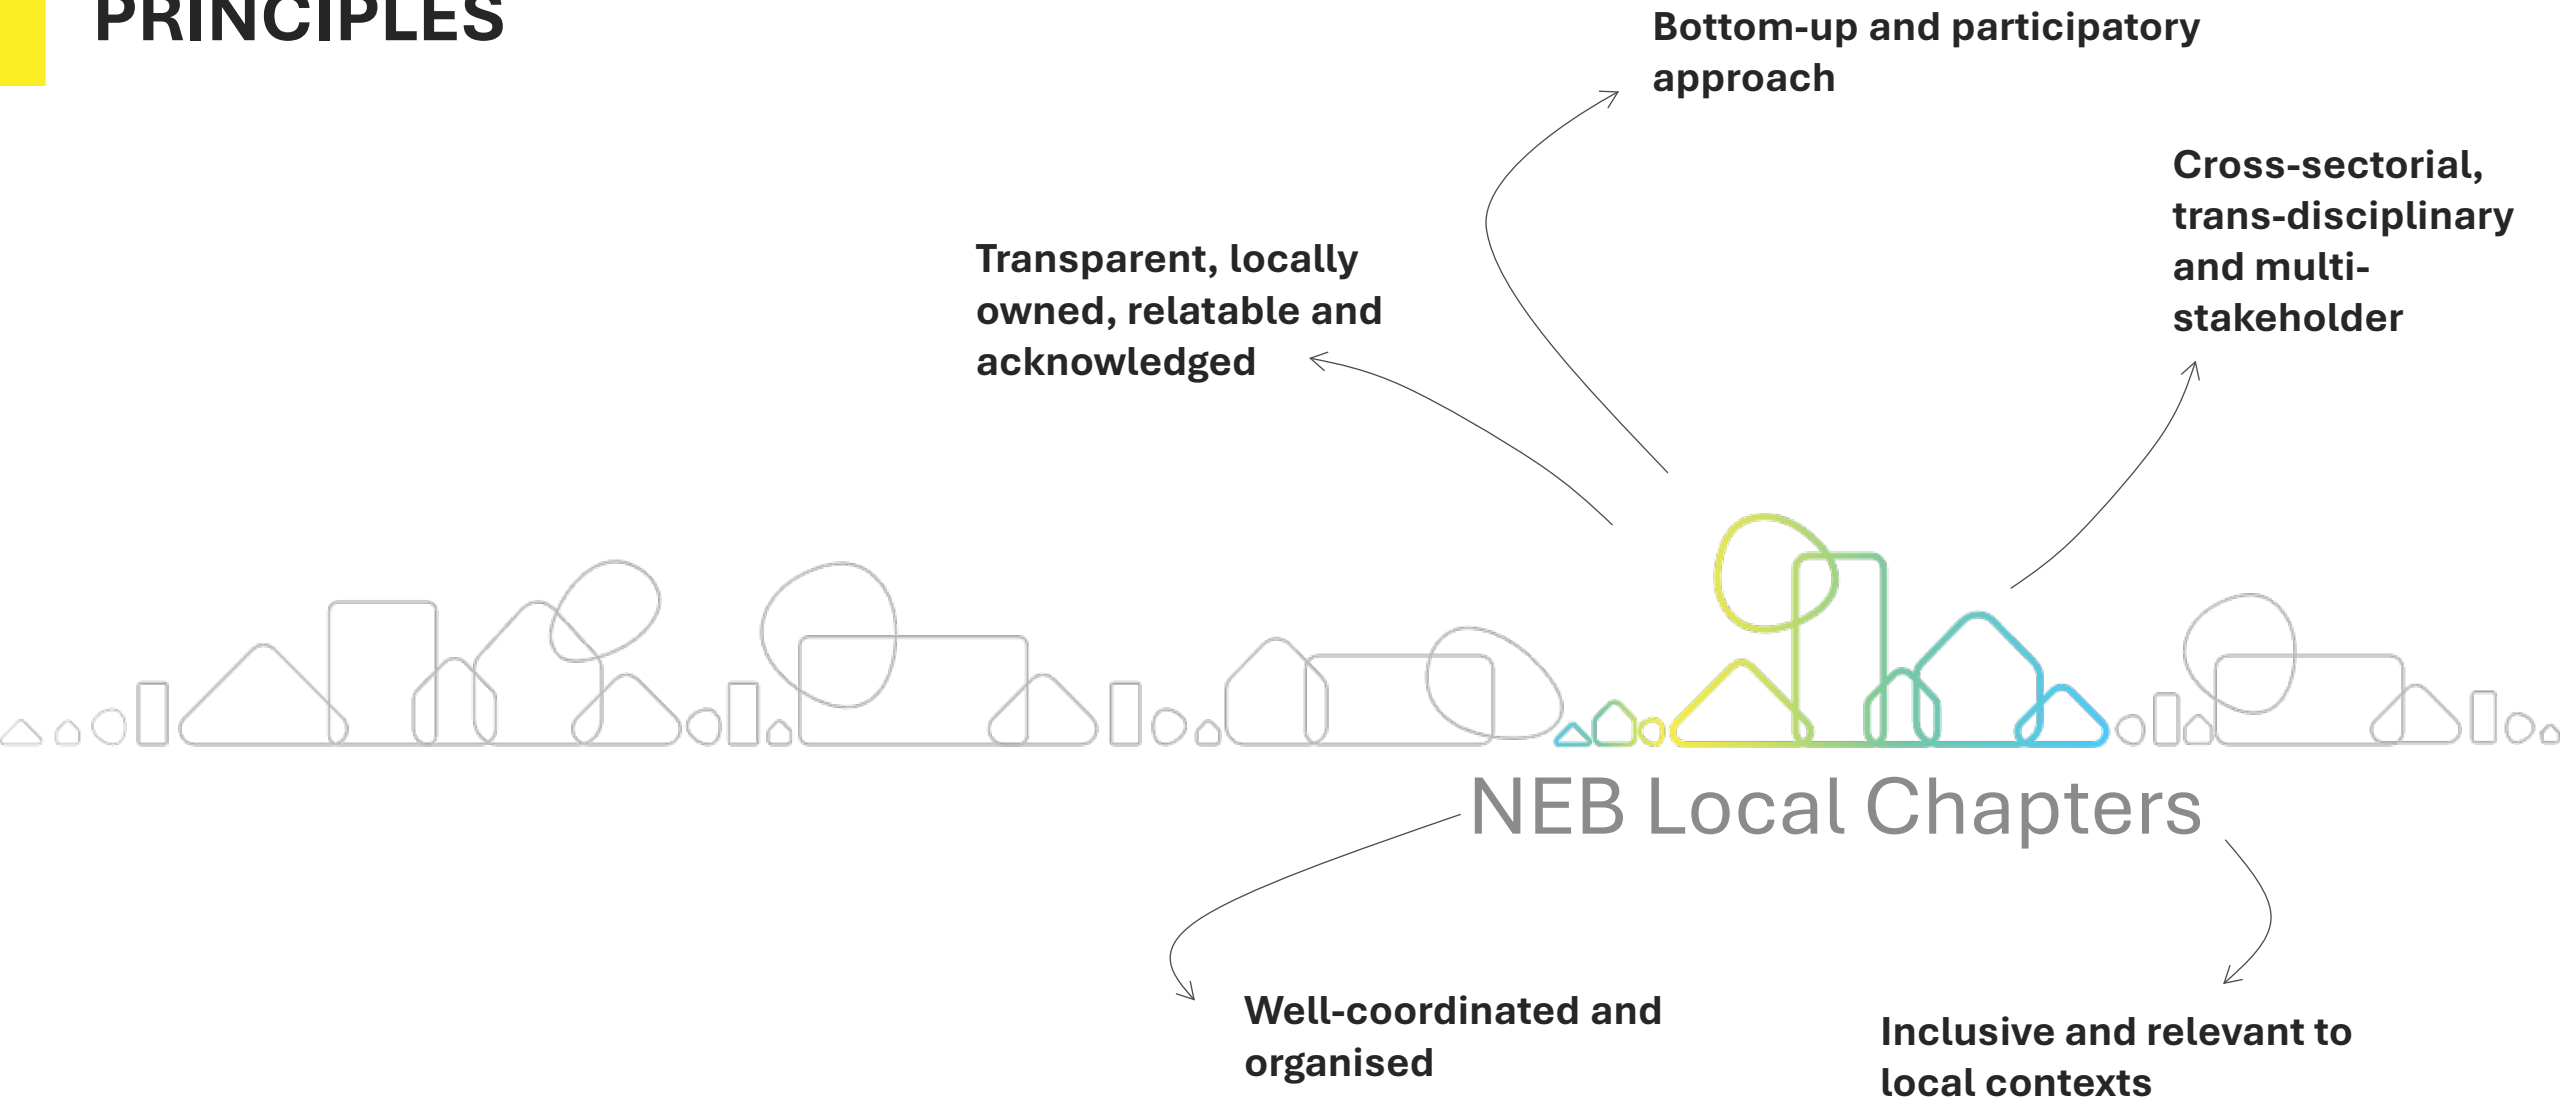

NEB Local Chapters

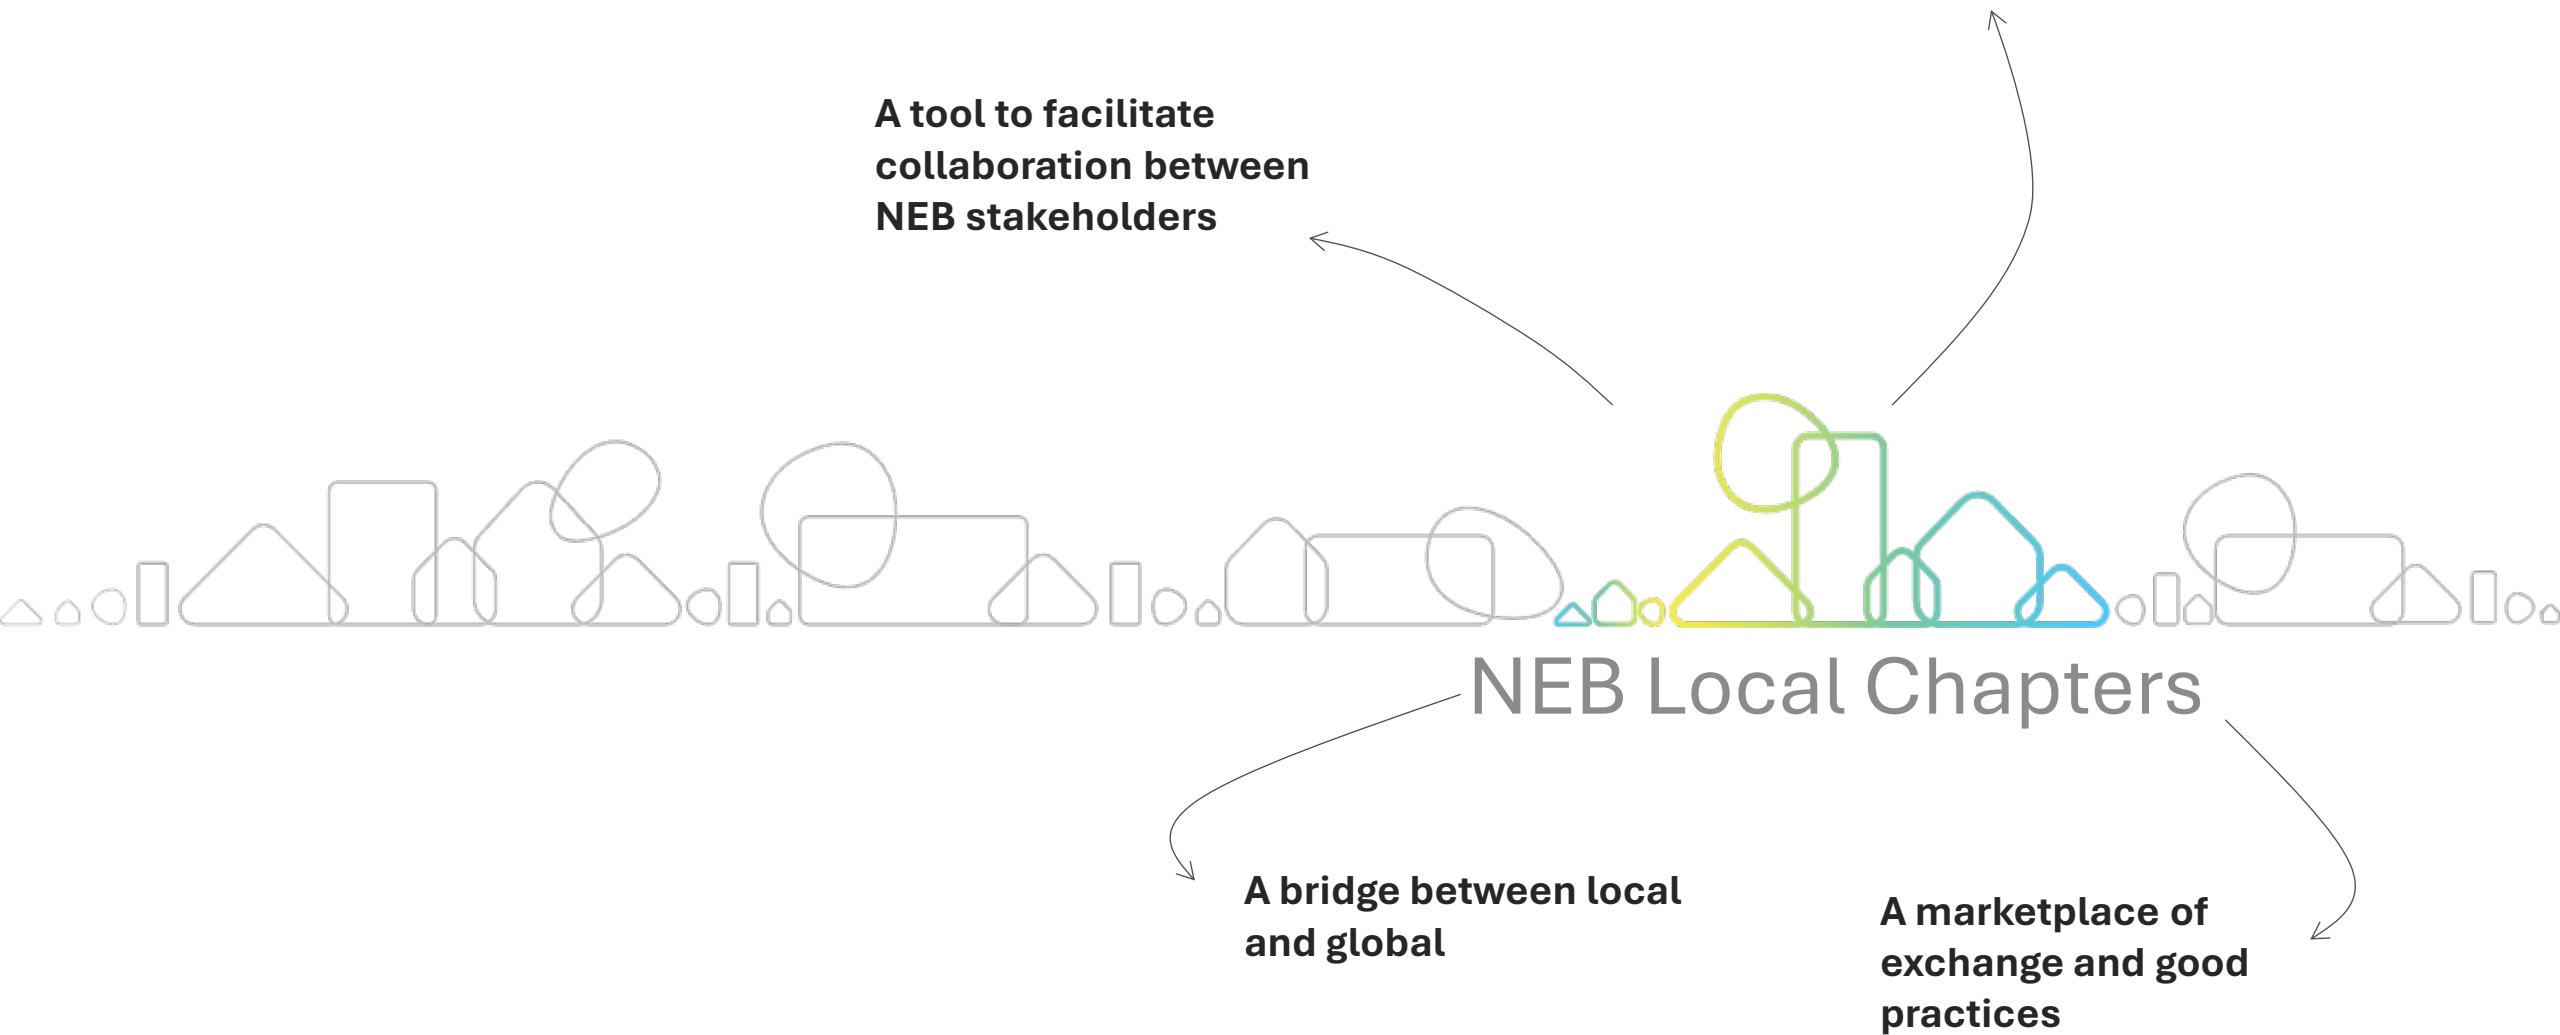

All NEB Community members from the territory must be invited to join the Local Chapter
